Dear Parents and Carers,

You may be aware from media coverage the fifth and sixth day of NEU strike action is due to take place on Thursday 27th April and Tuesday 2nd May. The strike is happening because of a national dispute between the unions and the government over teachers' pay.

After careful consideration of staffing arrangements and taking into account the safety and wellbeing of our pupils we can confirm that at this point in time, Ecclesfield Primary School will partially open for some classes. The classes that will be open on each day are identified in the table below. Teaching and learning will be in place for these classes only.

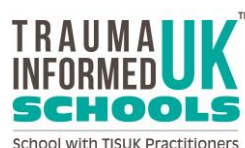

Timings of the school day, entry / exit and Breakfast Club will remain as usual.

Please be aware that this may change depending upon the outcome of balloting for other teaching unions.
