Roald Dahl Day Friday 29th September

Dear Parents and Carers,

As a school we understand the value of children reading for pleasure and are constantly supporting children's love of reading. This half term we will be celebrating Roald Dahl Day on Friday 29th September. We realise this is later than the publicised Roald Dahl Day, we wanted to give our children time to settle into their new classes.

Over the course of the day, staff will be sharing their favourite stories or poems with the children and using this opportunity to talk about the books we love to read.

To celebrate Roald Dahl Day on Friday 29th September, children could dress as their favourite character from a Roald Dahl book, wear something yellow (Roald Dahl's favourite colour) or if children prefer, they could come in non-uniform for that day. We are asking for a suggested donation of £1, payable via the sQuid offer "Roald Dahl Day Donations". This money will be split between Roald Dah's Marvellous Children Charity and School's fundraising to support buying new and engaging books for our children at Ecclesfield Primary.

Please note that children do NOT need to dress up, it is optional and if they are wanting to dress up, please do not feel costumes need to be bought.

Should you have any questions, please not hesitate to contact your child's class teacher.

Thank you for your continued support with your children's reading.

Mrs Travers
Acting Head of School
