Dear Parents and Carers,

I am writing to let you know that I will be leaving my post as Head of School at Ecclesfield Primary School at the end of this academic year. This was not an easy decision, as I have truly loved my time here and feel incredibly fortunate to have been part of such a wonderful school community.

During my time at Ecclesfield Primary School, I have been constantly inspired by the dedication and warmth of our staff, the support and partnership of our parents and carers, and, of course, our incredible children. I want to thank each and every one of you for making my experience here so special.

At present, arrangements for a new Head of School are still being finalised. As soon as these plans are confirmed, we will communicate further details with you to ensure a smooth and positive transition for everyone involved.

As I prepare for this next chapter, I want to convey my very best wishes to all the pupils, families and staff at Ecclesfield Primary School. I am confident that the school will continue to thrive and achieve great things in the future.

If you have any questions or would like to get in touch, please feel free to contact the school office, who can forward any messages to me.

Thank you again for your support and for making my time at Ecclesfield Primary School so memorable.

With warmest wishes,
Mrs Robinson
Head of School
